Although the American Association of Candy Technologists (AACT) technical seminar usually meets in the fall for its annual technical seminar, this year the group held its meeting in the summer, in cooperation with the National Confectioners Association All Candy Expo in Chicago June 23–25, 1998. Confectionery technicians and related professionals participated in the event.

STROUD JORDAN BANQUET

John Kitt, AACT president and Stroud Jordan Award committee chair, spoke of the memberships overwhelming vote for Jim McGovern, vice president of manufacturing at Peerless Confection company, to receive the
